

Barclays Capital Graduate Full Time Position in Sales

Barclays Capital is recruiting a Graduate Candidate for a London and Frankfurt based Team selling Structured Solutions (Multi Asset) to German Institutional Investors.

Why Barclays:

Barclays Capital is the investment banking division of Barclays Bank PLC, offering strategic advisory, financing and risk management solutions to large corporate, government and institutional clients. Employing 25,000 people globally in offices around the world, we have the global reach and distribution power to meet the needs of issuers and investors in all the major financial markets

Structured Products Sales Team:

The new joiner would be part of our Structured Products Sales Team - a key client interface dedicated to solving the problems and servicing the needs of our institutional clients in Germany and Austria. The team provides banks, asset managers, insurance companies and pension funds with a cross asset sales coverage on structured investments or strategic hedging solutions.

Who we are looking for:

We seek candidates with an excellent academic track record, an entrepreneurial spirit and the determination to excel in a demanding and rewarding environment. In addition to being a team player, every candidate should bring a solid understanding of finance and accounting as well as strong analytical skills. Applicants must be able to speak fluent German. You should be able to join us for a full time graduate position by August 2012 or earlier.

If you are interested to join Barclays Capital, please contact Lena Huda (Lena.Huda@barclayscapital.com). We recruit on a rolling basis therefore early applications are advised.

Earn Success Every Day

- Bank of the Year
- Loan House
- Derivatives House
- Sterling Bond House
- Interest Rate Derivatives House

- Best Global Investment Bank
- Best Bank in UK
- Best Equity House in UK
- Best Flow House in Western Europe
- Best Debt House in North America